HEALTH

Alisios Corporation

Past experiences and current circumstances shape our clients' needs and are linked to the futures they can reach. At Alisios Corporation, our commitment is to provide high-quality services that help you plan and build the future you desire

Living in a healthy environment fosters socio-economic development in communities and promotes individual well-being. Monitoring and forecasting the environment is essential to enhance livelihoods

Our environmental suitability monitoring and prediction system helps organizations prepare for the impact of a changing climate on human health

DISEASE FORECASTS

Alisios' monitoring and forecasting systems of vector-borne diseases facilitate early intervention, resource allocation and strategic planning

- Vector-borne diseases monitoring and prediction (M&P) systems
- Respiratory diseases and air quality M&P
- Accompanying experts
- Sibila Rooms

These systems help control diseases, reduce mortality rates, optimise resource management, and increase the efficiency of both public and private healthcare systems

UNDERNUTRITION FORECASTS

Monitoring and forecasting undernutrition cases provide essential information for public health and socioeconomic development matters

Servicing undernutrition forecasts 3 and 6 months in advance allows for decision-makers, policymakers, and humanitarian organisations to develop strategic interventions and allocate resources more efficiently

This enables:

- Better resource management and allocation
- Planning and developing specific strategies to combat undernutrition
